OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

It is observed that the note on the administration of the Railway Department now furnished by the Secretary for Railways for inclusion in the State Administration Report is generally too meagre to be usefully reviewed by Government. It is therefore directed that in future a more detailed report, on the lines of the annual reports of the Railway Board of India be submitted instead for each official year before the 1st of October following. The report will be reviewed by Government in the General and Revenue Departments.
